

---

Partners

---

During the period of its existence, the employees of the department cooperated with many foreign and inland institutions. Finding solution to actual social problems and the preparation of students for managing in quite concrete organisations could not be recently imagined without establishing functional professionally run consortiums. The most frequent fields for cooperation include:

- Student and university employee's mobility
- Preparation of international programme
- Practical experience for students
- Social projects